LET CONTRACTS FOR VISITORS' CENTER HERE

U.S. Senator Hugh Scott (R-Pa.) said today he has been informed that the National Park Service will award contracts totaling $895,805 to four Pennsylvania firms for completion of the Visitor Center and Cyclorama building for the Gettysburg National Military Park.

Senator Scott said the project includes a $687,349 contract for construction of the circular Visitor Center - Cyclorama building awarded to the Orndorff Construction Co. of Camp Hill; a $91,938 heating and ventilating contract to York Air Cooling and Ventilating Co. of York; an $84,730 contract for electrical work and installations to the Keystone Engineering Co. of Philadelphia, and a $31,788 plumbing contract to Hirsch, Aiken and Pinehurst of Philadelphia. In each instance the contract was awarded to the lowest of many bids submitted on each type of work involved.

Complete In 1961

Senator Scott said the work, scheduled for completion in the spring of 1961, marks the final phase in construction to prepare Gettysburg National Military Park for the 1961-1965 Civil War Centennial observances.

The new Visitor Center will be a multi-level, plain and ribbed reinforced concrete structure with the lower level built of native stone. It will be erected on the southern fringe of Ziegler's Grove with an access road from the Emmitsburg Rd.

Senator Scott pointed out that the Visitor Center - Cyclorama building will provide a circular room for display of Philippeaux's famous cyclorama painting of the historic battle. The Cyclorama, one of the world's largest paintings, will be restored and special lighting and sound effects installed to enhance the dramatic effect of the monumental canvas.

The new structure, proposed in the Mission 66 program, will house a museum containing some 30 exhibits interpreting the park's story, administrative offices, shops, restrooms and storage rooms.

PROBLEMS OF INDIA CITED IN CLUB TALK

The problems of rapidly expanding population, a lagging supply and the lack of job opportunities for college graduate in India were cited by P. S. Akolekar, instructor in economics at Gettysburg College, as major problems in his native land in a United Nations Week address before the local Lions Club Monday evening.

"The educated unemployed in India are one of the big problems for its economic planners," Mr. Akolekar said. He estimated that in two years there will be a million and a half college graduates in India without jobs. The gravity of the problem is pointed up, he said, by the fact that of 2,000 who came to the U. S. from India for technical training, less than a third have returned. "I am one of them," he added.

Contributing factors, he said, are the lack of technically trained people in this country which results in attractive job offers to trained India technicians in the U. S. and the shortage of investment of foreign capital in India to open more industrial activity.

Introduce New Member

He said the first five-year plan in India, from 1951 to 1956, centered around the theme of "Five-Year Plan."

German Shoemaker Found Nailed To Wall Of Shop

FRANKFURT, Germany (AP)—Georg Krausert wanted to die like Christ. He didn't, but friends made it appear that he did.

The body of the slight, 64-year-old shoemaker was discovered Monday by two women customers, nailed to a wall of his suburban shop by a hand and feet.

"His right hand was nailed to the wall above his head and his feet nailed to a board on the floor," said one of the women, Mrs. H. Fleischmann. "There was a lot of blood and foam around his mouth."

A 30-inch metal rod, pointed on one end and shaped into a handle on the other, was pushed through the old man's chest.

Chest Drive Report Tonight

The final report meeting of the Community Chest campaign will be held this evening at seven o'clock in the Gettysburg College dining hall.

Dean Seymour B. Dunn, drive chairman, today urged all solicitors to finish any remaining calls and present a "complete" report tonight. "The success of this campaign depends on whether every resident has been seen and given an opportunity to contribute," Dunn said.

At the semifinal report meeting last Tuesday, seventy-six per cent of the $26,800 goal had been attained but over 2,000 rural and residential calls remained to be made.

Coffee will be served at tonight's meeting.

AUXILIARY OF HOSPITAL TOLD ABOUT FAVORS

At the regular meeting of the Women's Auxiliary of the Warner Hospital Monday afternoon in the hospital dining room Mrs. H. G. VanRiper, of the Carlisle Hospital Auxiliary, demonstrated favors that she has made for hospital trays.

Mrs. VanRiper showed several kinds that she and her committee have made for 48 different occasions. She said that her group had begun making favors for only the special holidays such as Christmas and the Fourth of July, and branched out to include lesser known holidays. They began making them out of fresh flowers, she said, but found this too expensive in winter and turned to paper. They found that the patients liked favors they could take home with them, she said.

"The object in preparing each favor is to arouse interest and hope and to keep the patients' mind off his ills. We never use anything sad or morose, but only the hopeful and beautiful," she added. Nearly every favor displayed had its own verse created by Mrs. VanRiper to "capture the spirit of the occasion with a hopeful, cheery message."

Uses Cheap Material

She used simple things like wrapping paper with a design to furnish the background for a verse. She pointed out that using wrapping paper keeps the expense down while adding color. She also uses napkins to tie in with the occasion. A unique favor

Little goblins, most of them masked and costumed, will ring your doorbell Thursday evening and flash a special coin box on you and plead "Trick or Treat?" However, they will not be appealing for candy, apples, gum, cookies or the like for themselves. They will ask you to donate some money, regardless of the amount, for UNICEF (United Nations International Children's Emergency Fund).

These little goblins will be pupils from the Sixth grades throughout Adams County. Every penny you give will be turned over to UNICEF to be used on the stricken children in the free world. Please be as generous as you can.

What does UNICEF do with your money.

Children must first be freed of disease. Countries launching mass campaigns against malaria, yaws, tuberculosis, leprosy and trachoma turn to UNICEF, especially for supplies and equipment.

To grow strong, healthy bodies, children need nutritious food. UNICEF helps in many ways. By sending powdered milk, it meets immediate needs. By providing machinery to dry milk or process substitute foods as fish flour and soybean milk, it helps

The enumerators will be furnished with maps of the areas to which they are assigned. They will be expected to place on the maps features that may have appeared since the maps were made in 1954, such as new houses, factories, etc.

Farmers will be sent questionnaires Wednesday and will be asked to fill out the information prior to the arrival of the enumerators so that the work of the census takers will be at a minimum.

Expect New Wave Of Prospecting For Iron Ore In This Area

By RICHARD L. GRAVES
HARRISBURG (AP)—Information from a series of secret geological survey maps is expected to touch off a wave of iron ore prospecting in southeastern Pennsylvania.

The maps will be made public at 9 a.m. Friday. They contain information collected over the past three years by a special state-federal air survey.

The air survey was made with a device called a magnetometer which measures variations of magnetism from the earth's surface. In brief, it locates iron deposits.

"Well Worth Exploring"

"We have found even in these few maps several areas well worth further exploration," said Dr. Carlyle Gray, the state's chief geologist.

"This information will lead to some active prospecting," he added. "We are quite hopeful that this will lead to some important discoveries."

Steel Strike Showdown In Court Today

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The record 105-day steel strike, its obstinateness cracked slightly by a Kaiser Steel Corp. agreement with the United Steelworkers, headed for another showdown today in federal court.

The U.S. 3rd Circuit Court of appeals will announce at 4 p.m. whether the 500,000 striking steelworkers must return to work for 80 days under a Taft-Hartley injunction or may continue their strike.

The ruling, however, will not be released until about 4:45 p.m. because appellate courts here usually wait until after the country's stock markets close to hand down decisions which affect stock prices.

Meanwhile, 7,500 Kaiser employees returned to work at plants in California under a new agreement which will be in force until June 30, 1961.

Kaiser, the nation's ninth biggest producer, pierced the industry's solid front Monday night by signing a separate peace with the union after nearly five hours of behind-the-scenes negotiations in Washington.

But the other 11 big companies said Kaiser's defection would not affect their determination to resist what they termed an inflationary settlement.

A marriage license has been issued to John A. Gantz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvey Gantz, Aspers, and Patricia J. Weaver, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd F. Weaver, Littlestown.

In fact, Bethlehem ran its own magnetometer test over the southeastern counties a decade ago. As a result it invested heavily in the area near Morgantown, Berks County, not far from the Pennsylvania Turnpike. It put up its plant and equipment over the past 10 years and began actual mining operations early this year.

MRS. ROSER PAROLED BY COURT TODAY

Mrs. Alice M. Roser, Ottanta R. 1 and Biglerville, was released from the Adams County jail today after serving the minimum of her 60 to 120-day sentence on a morals charge.

She and Wilbur L. Crouse, Littlestown R. 1, were sentenced August 29 on the charge. Crouse, who was given six months, remains a prisoner. Mrs. Roser was placed on parole by the Adams County court this morning.

The court today completed hearing testimony and arguments in the assault action brought by Howard W. Davis, Glen Burnie, Md., against John E. Maitland, Littlestown, trading as Maitland Brothers.

The suit concerns payment by Maitland to Davis of additional amounts for dismantling, construction and repair of an asphalt plant located near here along the Lincoln Highway.

"Soundproof" Courtroom

At the conclusion of the trial without a jury this morning the court indicated a decision will be handed down soon.

Monday afternoon the court found an additional value for the small courtroom constructed in the basement of the court house last month. When men with air hammers started digging away for the replacing of a utility pole at the corner of Middle and Baltimore Sts., just outside the court house, the court, attorneys and witnesses found it almost impossible to hear in the large courtroom on the second floor of the court house. They moved to the basement court room where thick stone walls bar noises and found they could continue in quiet without disturbance although the court was actually closer to the air hammer in the basement than it was on the second floor.

A second civil trial without jury is scheduled to be started Wednesday by the court.

CORN SUPPORT PRICE STANDS

The price support rate for 1959-crop corn in Adams County will remain at $1.24, unchanged from the minimum rate announced several weeks ago. J. Glenn Miller, office manager for the Adams County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation office, announced today.

This followed a determination by the U.S. Department of Agriculture that the national average support rate will be $1.12 per bushel, the same as the amount announced before planting time last spring.

As provided by law, Miller said, the support price reflects 90 per cent of the average price of $1.25 per bushel received by farmers for corn during the three calendar years 1956-1958. A minimum price was announced in February as a guide for farmers in advance of planting subject to reassessment at the beginning of the marketing year. Current information indicates no change in the rate. The rate however varies from location to location depending on various factors. As a result Adams County's price support rate is 12 cents higher than the national average.

Under the present corn program there are no acreage allotments and corn produced anywhere in the U.S. in 1959 that meets quality and storage requirements is eligible for support. As in past programs, corn will be supported through loans and purchase agreements available from harvest time through May 31, 1960. Loans mature July 31, 1960.

Stock Move Up 3rd Straight Day

NEW YORK (AP)—Industrials paced the stock market into the third day of its current rally but the going was getting heavier early this afternoon. Trading was active.

Some brisk profit taking shaved gains of electronics and other space age stocks which have been enjoying a bull market of their own recently.

Trading interest rotated to the badly battered and neglected oils which put on their best performance in weeks. Chemicals, non-ferrous metals and most of the motors also did well.

Steels were mixed and rails did nothing on average. The separate steel strike settlement made by Kaiser Steel and the imminence of a court decision late this afternoon on use of the Taft-Hartley injunction to send the steelworkers back to the mills were overhanging uncertainties.

CEREMONY AT SCHOOL SITE CUT SHORT BY RAIN ON SUNDAY

Cut short by rain, ground breaking ceremonies were held Sunday afternoon at the site of the new $1,075,066 Bermudian Springs High School. Excavation work already had begun last week for the new structure which is scheduled for occupancy by December 1, 1960.

The building, designed by Burchart Associates of York, will include 23 classrooms and will house 635 pupils.

A distinctive feature of the building is that it will be heated entirely by electricity. It will be the first electrical installation of its type in this area.

Guests Introduced

Sunday's ceremonies opened with the national anthem by the Bermudian Springs High School Band, directed by Gary Crum, and the invocation by the Rev. Harold R. Stoudt, East Berlin Lutheran pastor. There were introductions of guests including County Superintendent of Schools C. P. Keefer, Assistant Superintendent M. Francis Coulson; Clair Burchart and Joe Crumling from Burchart Associates; Ernie Riesinger, representing the general contractor from Carlisle, and a representative of Miller-Lisky, the electrical contractor from Hagers-town.

Taking part in the actual ground breaking were the Rev. Norman L. Bortner, chairman of the building authority; Ralph W. Tyson, president of the joint school board; the Rev. Amos D. Meyers, supervising principal of the joint school system; Joseph Eshleman, a student representative, and Alfred Billet, the high school principal.

After the formal ground breaking, the band played another number and the exercises concluded hastily in a shower.

Three-unit Plan

The school will be divided into three separate buildings — each designed to house a different phase of education. The main building will have 23 classrooms and administrative offices and will be devoted exclusively to academic pursuits. An open center court will provide the classrooms with maximum light and ventilation. A separate gymnasium-auditorium will provide for physical education. The third building, which will house the office facilities, will provide for the industrial training of the high school students. In addition to providing separate quarters for each of the different student activities, this arrangement will also move the sources of noise (gym and shop) away from the main classroom section.

Planned parking facilities have been placed in front of the school for convenience of faculty and visitors. A bus-loading and unloading zone is covered with a canopy which leads into a two-story lobby of glass cage construction.

The total cost of this school will be $1,075,066. According to the architect, the cost per pupil will be $1,685 and the cost per square foot will be $15.38.

BULLET BACK AMAZES ALL BY RECOVERY

Coach Gene Haas of the Gettysburg College football squad received good news today as the Bullets prepared for their homecoming game with Lafayette here Saturday afternoon at 1:30.

Dick Davidyock, senior full-back, who suffered a leg ligament injury in the Lehigh game and had apparently been destined to be out for the remainder of the season, has made a complete recovery and will be ready for full time duty.

Dr. Tilden I. Moe, college physician, and Romeo Capozzi, trainer, termed the recovery as one of the most remarkable they have ever encountered for that type of injury. Haas stated "it shows what the proper mental attitude can do."

Until his injury, Davidyock had been the leading bullet ground-gainer with 110 yards in 29 tries.

"HARVEST TIME"

The fields of wheat are golden brown . . . the harvest time is here . . . this is a great transition . . . that happens every year . . . God has been very gracious . . . the stalks are full and long . . . happy are the farmers . . . their hearts are filled with song . . . I hear the threshers harmonize . . . a click-clack melody . . . while waves of grain bow to the sound . . . as it was meant to be . . . how beautiful this sight — and yet . . . sorrowful in a way . . . but mankind needs the staff of life . . . in order to be gay . . . the wheat is taken from the chaff . . . for it is harvest time . . . ## Presbyterians To Meet In Waynesboro

The third district of the Carlisle Presbyterian Society will meet in the Waynesboro Presbyterian Church on Thursday at 10 a.m. After a box lunch, the afternoon session will convene again at 1:30 p.m.

Miss Sallie Kee, a Navaho Indian, will be one of the speakers. She was educated in a mission high school and after graduation from the school of nursing, she returned to Ganado to serve her own people in the Sage Memorial Hospital, a Presbyterian institution serving the Indian Americans in Arizona. She is one of a staff of 50 missionaries engaged in carrying out the four-fold mission program, evangelism, medicine, education and community services.

Miss Ruth M. Nichol, the afternoon speaker, was born in Brooklyn, N. Y., daughter of a former United Presbyterian missionary. She graduated from Muskingum College in Ohio and began her mission service in Ethiopia at a girls' school in Addis Ababa. Thence she went to Egypt and at Cairo became a faculty member of the American College for Girls. After service in Pakistan, she returned to Ethiopia and is presently a supervisor of language study for new missionaries.

Presbyterian women from Adams, Franklin and Fulton Counties will attend.

The Tenth Grade Y-Teens held a hayride Saturday evening. They were chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. Carl Schoenborn and Mr. and Mrs. McGregor. Mr. Schoenborn and Mrs. McGregor are teachers at the Gettysburg High School. The drivers were Melvin Tressler and John Eyer. The accent is on industrial development in the current five-year plan but it is running into snags, partly because of the rocketing population and the need for a stepup in food production. He predicted special attention to food supplies in the next five-year plan are now being prepared. He also discussed the opportunity and need for more foreign capital investment in India. The return, he said, has been good to present investors.

In answer to a question he said he felt the neutral position in world affairs maintained by Nehru has not affected India adversely in the economic field.

The speaker was presented by the Rev. Charles E. Held, the club's U.N. committee chairman. Vice President Richard Folkenroth presided.

Wilbur Varian, part owner of the Gettysburg Garment Company, was introduced as a new member. Sixty-eight Lions and guests attended the meeting at the Shelter House.

TWO OF OUR SATELLITES LEAVE SKIES

By VERN HAUGHLAND

WASHINGTON (AP)—Two U.S. satellites, Explorer IV and Discoverer VI, disappeared from the skies last week.

Tracking scientists said both artificial moons burned up upon reentering the earth's atmosphere. Explorer IV had been aloft for a year and three months. Discoverer VI for two months.

Their demise left in orbit six U.S. satellites, three of them actively broadcasting information to the earth, and two Soviet voyagers, both still transmitting.

Had Been Predicted

In addition, two artificial planets, the Soviet Lunik I and the U.S. Pioneer IV, launched early this year are still in orbit around the sun.

The loss of the two satellites became known Monday when reports from the tracking agencies reached headquarters. Their ends had been predicted at about this time.

Explorer IV, a tube 30 inches long and weighing 38.43 pounds, was launched from Cape Canaveral, Fla., July 26, 1958. It confirmed the existence of deadly radiation bands first discovered by Explorer III. It fell from the low point of its orbit, 178 miles above the earth, last Thursday.

No Recovery

Discoverer VI, weighing 1,700 pounds, was launched from Vandenberg Air Force Base, Calif., Aug. 19.

It was designed to eject a 300-pound capsule more than 24 hours after launching for recovery by airplanes waiting to catch it as parachutes lowered it toward the Pacific. However, the capsule was ejected at the wrong time and there was no recovery.

Say No Bomb On Ill-fated Airliner

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—No evidence of a bomb explosion has been found in a Braniff plane crash near Buffalo, Tex., that claimed 34 lives, says John S. Leak of the Civil Aeronautics Board.

Leak is in charge of reassembling fragments of the craft in a Dallas warehouse. He made clear Monday that the bomb possibility has not been ruled out completely.

The Braniff Electra disintegrated 15,000 feet in the air during a night flight from Houston to Dallas Sept. 29.

MUNSONVILLE, N. H. (AP)—Aubrey Mordough, stalled here by racing flood waters, clutched a large plastic bag and kept muttering "I must get home." His wife and baby were in their flood-isolated home. With the help of three motorists, who drove until their vehicles bogged down, Aubrey finally made it.

The plastic bag? It was filled with laundry, mostly diapers.

Soviets May Name Moon's Features

NEW YORK (AP)—The Soviet Union may get to name everything on the back side of the moon.

Through the centuries, the discoverer traditionally has had the right to decide what to call his discovery.

This likely will hold if the Soviet Union can map all the moon's other side before anyone else.

Craters, mountains, plains and other features on the side of the moon facing the earth were named in bygone eras by astronomers of many nations.

Top-Flight Grid Elevens Vie For Major Bowl Bids

By JACK CLARY

Associated Press Sports Writer
With the college football season past the halfway point, the early line of the major New Year's Day bowl games is in, and is not the first to arrive, either.

Presbyterian College of Clinton, S. C., Monday night became the first to accept a bid when it agreed to participate in the Tangerine Bowl in Orlando, Fla., Jan. 1, 1960.

The early list of major bowl aspirants is formidable but with key conference and independent battles shaping up during the next few weeks, the pretenders quickly will be eliminated.

Bowl Stipulations

The Rose Bowl is the only one committed entirely to conference representation. The Gator Bowl has no ties. The Sugar, Cotton and Orange bowls have a conference representative as the host and draw on the remaining top-flight competition.

This group includes Clemson, the Atlantic Coast Conference leader with an overall 4-1 record, Wyoming, the Skyline leader with a 5-1 mark and North Texas State, the Missouri Valley leader with a 6-0 mark.

Best bets among the independents now are Syracuse (5-0) and Penn State (6-0), the Eastern leaders who clash on Nov. 7; Air Force (4-1); Oregon (5-1) and Washington State (4-1) from the West Coast, who are also eligible for the Rose Bowl under a compromise plan drawn up by members of the new Far West Five, and deposed member of the Pacific Coast Conference.

Many Contenders
In addition, the Southeastern Conference, whose champ hosts the Sugar Bowl, could provide a fluffball of fine teams. Louisiana State and Mississippi, best bets for the Sugar Bowl, clash Saturday night, and the loser is sure to get a top bowl bid. Other strong nominees from the SEC are Georgia Tech, Georgia and Tennessee.

Here's how the other bowl host spots stack up:
Rose Bowl: From the West Coast, Oregon, and Washington, a Far West Five member with a 1-1 conference mark, are the top eligibles. Washington State is a dark-horse but must play both contenders.

From the Big Ten probably will come Northwestern, 3-0 in the conference. But Purdue and Wisconsin, both 2-1, are not to be discounted.

Texas Favored
Cotton Bowl: Texas (2-0) is the choice for the Southwest Conference title if it gets by Southern Methodist this week. Otherwise SMU and Arkansas bear watching.

Orange Bowl: The Big Eight

can't send Oklahoma if the Sooners win the title (and no one is betting against that) so Kansas and Iowa State, both 2-1 play this weekend to narrow the choice between the winner, and Missouri.

Gator Bowl: Has all the independents, the non-affiliated conference champs and anyone else who looks good, which will probably be one of those SEC runners-up.

REPORT OF PAY INCENTIVE FOR LIONS DENIED

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The acting commissioner of the National Football League says that he believes reports the Detroit Lions received incentive pay to defeat the Los Angeles Rams are false.

Acting Commissioner Austin Gonsel said Monday night that there would be no investigation. He added that he talked with Detroit President Edwin J. Anderson by telephone.

"Anderson told me that the incentive reports were false," Gonsel explained. "I must believe him. I think the whole thing is getting a little ridiculous."

In an article Saturday in the Detroit Press it was reported that Anderson didn't give players a customary $100 for meals. He was quoted as saying that he would give the players the money "if they beat the Rams." The Lions defeated the Rams 17-7 Sunday for their first victory after four straight losses.

NFL rules state that no players or coaches shall receive bonuses or money for winning a scheduled game.

Sleeping Baby Is Accidentally Killed

MOUNT SAVAGE, Md. (AP)—Harry W. Long said his son, Matthew, 8, had such a fascination for firearms that it was necessary to dismantle a shotgun to keep the youngster from playing with it.

Monday the boy took the parts from a cedar closet. State trooper G. R. Robinette said Matthew inserted a shell in the barrel, then tried to attach the stock of the gun.

The shell exploded, he said, fatally injuring Catherine Teresa Long, 4, sleeping a few feet away. Matthew was placed under treatment for shock. The death was ruled accidental.

GEOFFRION IS TOP SCORER IN HOCKEY LOOP

MONTREAL (AP)—One of the reasons for the Montreal Canadiens' surge to the top of the National Hockey League has been the play of Bernie Geoffrion.

The Canadiens won three games last week with Geoffrion sparking them with three goals and three assists. This output boosted the hard-shooting right winger into the scoring lead with 14 points.

Figures released by the league today showed Geoffrion with six goals and eight assists. Line-mate Jean Beliveau also collected six points during the week to move into a second-place tie with Andy Bathgate of the New York Rangers. Each has 11.

Bronco Horvath of the Boston Bruins, the leader a week ago, accounted for only one goal. He fell into a fourth-place deadlock with the Rangers' Dean Prentice with 10 points apiece.

Terry Sawchuk of the Detroit Red Wings continues to boast the lowest average among the goalies. He has allowed 1.00 goals per game, giving up just seven tallies in seven games. Sawchuk also has the most shutouts, two.

Notre Dame football coach Joe Kuharich had a 26-14 record in four years of coaching at the University of San Francisco.

INJURIES HIT PRO GRIDDERS ACROSS NATION

By MIKE RATHET

Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—Frank Gifford is the latest member of the National Football League's "handicapped brigade," just one of a host of outstanding pro stars currently swathed in the emblem of their trade.

The rib injury to Gifford, which will sideline the New York Giants' No. 1 halfback for two or three weeks, was the only major casualty reported after Sunday's full schedule of bruising action.

But many of the game's top names still are riding the bench or proving ineffective due to an assortment of injuries.

Colts Suffer Too

Gifford's running mate, Alex Webster, missed a couple of games because of bruised ribs and still is not able to perform at top speed.

The champion Baltimore Colts have been hard hit. Halfback L. G. Duple, one of the main cogs for the 1958 titlists, is out for the rest of the season with a ruptured blood vessel in his leg.

Bert Rechichar, linebacker and kickoff specialist for the Colts, still is hobbled by a leg injury suffered in the exhibition season. End Ray Berry has been slowed by a leg muscle pull. Linebacker Leo Sanford retired when injuries suffered last year didn't heal.

Others forced into retirement or out for the season are Green Bay fullback Howie Ferguson, San Francisco halfback Jim Pace, Detroit halfback Gene Gedman and Los Angeles defensive end Gene Brito.

BIG CHANGES IN THE WORKS FOR MAJORS

By JOE REICHLER

Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—A revolutionary expansion plan may be in the works in the major leagues. The Associated Press has learned.

According to an authoritative source, this is the proposed plan:

1. The expansion-minded American League is seriously considering a 10-team format in the near future, possibly even next year. Two new franchises, Minneapolis and New York, would be added.

2. The new franchise in New York, already American League territory, then would be offered to the National League in exchange for either Pittsburgh or Philadelphia.

May Be Problems

This ambitious plan faces many problems, however. The biggest is to get the status quo-minded National League to accept the proposition.

The American League plans to meet again Wednesday, ostensibly for a schedule meeting. It is conceivable the expansion committee may have something to announce then.

Four Favor Idea

According to the AP informant, four AL teams favor the inter-league exchange idea — Washington, Cleveland, Detroit and Chicago. It takes six affirmative votes to make any kind of a franchise change.

Should the plan become a fact, the American League, the source said, would permit the Washington Senators to move to Minneapolis but would retain possession of the Washington franchise and put another team in the nation's capital.

The National League New York entry would play its home games at Yankee Stadium, as tenants of the Yankees.

SHAW IS AL SOPHOMORE

NEW YORK (AP)—Bob Shaw, the physical culture addict who won 18 games for the pennant-winning Chicago White Sox, today was named American League sophomore of the year by a healthy margin.

Shaw drew 132 votes of the 170 cast by members of the Baseball Writers' Assn. of America in the annual Associated Press poll. He is a 6-2, 190-pound right-hander who thrives on vitamins and exercise. Milt Pappas of Baltimore, another right-handed pitcher, was a distant second. He was named on 24 ballots.

Shaw was one of the big surprises of 1959. He was, in fact, so lightly regarded by Manager Al Lopez that he did not get his first start until the season was more than a month old. He shut out the Boston Red Sox 4-0 in his initial start on May 13 and thereafter received regular assignments, losing only six games and compiling a fine 2.65 earned run average.

"WITHOUT A SCRATCH"

SAUSALITO, Calif. (AP)—With a terrifying crunch and a shower of sparks, a car collided with a diesel locomotive Monday at a Northwestern Pacific crossing. The car, snagged on the locomotive, was pulled, bouncing and scraping, for 120 feet.

Presbyterian Team Accepts Bowl Bid

ORLANDO, Fla. (AP)—Presbyterian College of Clinton, S. C., undefeated and untied in six contests, Monday night accepted an invitation to play in the Tangerine Bowl football game here Jan. 1.

The announcement was made by Grady Cocksey, commissioner of the Elks Lodge Tangerine Bowl Commission which sponsors the annual charity game for the benefit of the Harry-Anna Crippled Children's Home at nearby Umatilla.

Presbyterian's opponent has not been chosen.

ALL-EAST GRID TEAM LISTED FOR THIS WEEK

NEW YORK (AP)—Army, Dartmouth, Princeton and Juniata are represented in the backfield of the weekly All-East football team based on performances last Saturday.

Joe Caldwell of Army is the quarterback whose eight completed passes in 14 attempts against Colorado State set a new cadet record of 64 for the season.

Halfbacks Jake Crouthamel of Dartmouth and Hugh Scott of Princeton between them gained a total of 235 yards on muddy fields. The Dartmouth star gained 132 yards against Harvard. Scott had made 103 against Cornell and he scored two touchdowns.

Juniata Back

Fullback Bill Berrier of Juniata scored two touchdowns, kicked three extra points, and rushed for 107 yards in his team's victory over Western Maryland.

Sophomore of the week as selected in the polls of press box observers is Syracuse's Ernie Davis, who gained 141 yards in nine plays and scored two touchdowns as the Orange trampled West Virginia.

End Bob Simms of Rutgers set a record when he caught his 13th touchdown pass and his 56th overall in the 23-0 victory over Lehigh. Simms, Caldwell and Hofstra guard George Dempster each was named to the all-east team for the second time this season.

Team Roster

Ends—Bob Simms, Rutgers, and John Sekinsky, Penn.
Tackles—Dave Thompson, Tufts, and George Thompson, Union.

Guards—Leon Dombrowski, Delaware, and George Dempster, Hofstra.

BATTLE FOR W. PA. TITLE

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Carnegie Tech and Westminster are waging a nip-and-tuck battle for top honors this year in the exciting West Penn Football Conference race.

In other area football conferences, unbeaten and untied West Chester has forged into the lead in the State Teachers loop and John Carroll is still holding the edge in the Presidents circuit.

Both Westminster and Tech turned in easy victories Saturday to remain one-two respectively in the West Penn league. If Tech can beat Geneva next Saturday and Westminster a week later, the two teams will be deadlocked for first place.

West Chester captured the teachers college lead by downing Shippensburg 14-0 while California dumped previously unbeaten Clarion 29-6. Shippensburg holds down third place. West Chester (4-0) has 234 rating points to Clarion's (3-1) 200.

John Carroll retained its lead in the Presidents conference with a 48-6 thumping of Case.

INJURIES HURT NITTANY LIONS

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. (AP)—Injuries to several key players may leave the unbeaten Penn State football team shorthanded Saturday against West Virginia.

Halfback Dick Pae, fifth leading groundgainer, probably will not play at all because of a concussion suffered in last Saturday's victory over Illinois at Cleveland. Pat Botula, captain and fullback, wrenched his right shoulder and may see only limited action. The team's other regular fullback, Sam Sobczak, also suffered a minor shoulder injury, but he is expected to be ready.

Frank Korbin, the starting right guard, is a doubtful starter due to a knee sprain.

All of the injured players showed up for practice today, but did not participate in the light drill.

AIR FORCE BALL TEAM 'REALISTIC'

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (AP)—The once-beaten Air Force Falcons are approaching their first football game against Army with "realistic confidence," coach Ben Martin said today.

"They're realistic in that they know Army has an outstanding team," he said. "They are confident because they know we also have some good football players and are capable of playing a real fine game."

Martin said he and the Falcons are not overawed by meeting powerful Army before a sell-out throng of 71,000 in New York's Yankee Stadium next Saturday.

"Can Win"

"We enter every game with the thought that we can win and we're going into the Army game the same way," Martin said.

The Falcons and Martin acknowledge Army may be the toughest test in their short football history. The airmen are playing only their second year as a four-year college team. They are unbeaten last year and their only defeat this season was to Oregon, 20-3.

After the Oregon loss, the Falcons rebounded with a 20-7 victory last Friday over UCLA.

Mayo Important

The UCLA game was somewhat of a switch in the Air Force's usual offensive pattern, which has relied heavily on the passing of quarterback Rich Mayo.

The Falcons logged 317 yards rushing against the Uclians and picked up another 37 yards on four pass completions in nine throws by Mayo.

"They prefer to run when they have the opportunity," Martin commented. He said a factor in the Air Force triumph was a desire to avenge a 47-0 loss to UCLA two years ago at Los Angeles. The Falcons were composed then of first and second year men only.

Elgin Baylor of Minneapolis is second with 105 points, also in three games.

Boston's Bill Russell is the league's most accurate shooter, with a 65.5 field goal percentage, and teammate Bob Cousy is tops in assists with 22 in two games. Ken Sears of New York dropped in 13 free throws in as many attempts.

Baylor leads in rebounds with a total of 51, Russell second with 49.

MAY CLARIFY I.O.C. POSITION AGAINST CHINA

SEVILLA, Spain (AP)—There were widespread reports today that the International Olympic Committee may call a special meeting soon to clarify its stand on the muddled Chinese situation.

Avery Brundage, president of the IOC who is vacationing here, declined comment other than to say he will have a definite statement to make at a press conference at Madrid Wednesday.

The IOC dropped a bombshell last May when it ruled Nationalist China no longer could compete in the Olympic Games under the Chinese banner, but would be compelled to adopt a new name such as "Formosa" or "Taiwan."

Wide Repercussions
The ruling was that the Nationalist Chinese no longer represented all of the Chinese nation.

At the same time, the IOC told the Communist Chinese, who had quit the Olympic body because of recognition of Nationalist China, that they could regain admission by making formal application through the various sports federations.

The IOC action drew repercussions from all over the world, and particularly in the United States, where even President Eisenhower criticized the move.

LSU HOLDS ON IN TOP SPOT IN AP GRID POLL

By WILL GRIMSLEY

Associated Press Sports Writer
The Louisiana State Tigers held on jealously today as the No. 1 team in college football, but theirs was a hazardous, uncomfortable position.

They face their biggest challenge Saturday night at Baton Rouge, La., against a high-flying Mississippi machine which forged into third place in The Associated Press' weekly poll and missed the No. 2 spot by the slender margin of 30 points—the equivalent of three first place votes.

In the game, LSU risks its proud position as national champion holder of an 18-game winning streak and leader of the poll on 13 straight occasions.

PSU, Syracuse Move Up

In the biggest ballot of the campaign—182 votes—the Tigers received 71 first-place votes and a total of 1,556 points to beat out the perennial poll runnerup, Northwestern.

Northwestern received fewer first-place votes than Mississippi—25 to Ole Miss' 46—but drew enough general favor down the line to hold the No. 2 berth. Points are awarded on the basis of 10 points for a first place vote, 9 for second, etc., in the poll of sports writers and broadcasters.

Texas, 28-6 winner over Rice, fell from third to fourth. The two Eastern surprises, Syracuse and Penn State, both moved up a notch on the strength of impressive victories.

Poker Game Switched GOP Court Nominee From Apple Growing To Law Practice

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Judge Blair Frederick Gunther—who might have been an apple farmer except for losing in a poker game—today is a Republican candidate for the Pennsylvania Supreme Court, a position he has aimed at for 45 years.

"I've looked forward to landing a seat on the state high court since I started out in law in 1914," says the 56-year-old member of the State Superior Court. This may be it.

But if it hadn't been for his losing the poker game during a train stopover in Pittsburgh in 1924, Gunther might never have entered the law. He tells it this way:

Lost Last $5
"I was on my way to Oregon at the time to buy an apple farm. On the stopover at Pittsburgh, I got in a game with some old school friends. I lost the only five dollars I had in the game and so I had to go to work in Pittsburgh. During that time, an old school chum talked me into going to Duquesne University's Law School."

Gunther was graduated from law school in 1927. The following year he was admitted to the state bar. He was a deputy attorney general in the State Justice Department, from 1935 to 1939. Between 1939 and 1942 he failed in attempts for Congress and for Allegheny County coroner. But he bounced right back, and in 1942, he was appointed a judge to the Allegheny County Court. The following year he was elected to a 10-year term to the Appellate Court, a position which he holds now. In the 1950 election, Gunther led all GOP candidates in Pennsylvania.

Relaxes By Fishing
"Ever since I've been a judge, I've believed that a jurist should have both a good head and a good heart. The two go together. Otherwise I think a judge is a monstrosity," he says.

Gunther was born in Hastings, Cambria County, on June 20, 1903. He attended public and parochial schools in that area and Kanti Preparatory College in Erie.

"My father was always going to court when I was a kid to sponsor a new citizen or something and I always tagged along. I guess I just developed the liking for law," he explained.

Gunther is married with three grown children and a grandchild on the way. He loves to fish, hunt and pitch horseshoes.

"Fishing's the best though. That's when I relax," says the jurist.

NEW YORK (AP)—An American Cancer Society survey of 8,079 patients treated at eight Westchester County, N.Y., hospitals during the past 10 years shows 37 per cent of the women survived five years or more from the time of diagnosis. Only 20 per cent of men cancer patients lived that length of time.

TROOPERS NAB FUGITIVE, 44, IN RAPE CASE

GREENFIELD, Mass. (AP)—State police said Monday they have picked up Rodney Austin, 44, of Newcastle, Maine, who has been sought since Friday in the abduction of a 14-year-old Maine baby sitter.

State police Sgt. Timothy Moran at headquarters in Boston said the man had been identified as Austin at the state police barracks in Shelburne Falls, eight miles from here.

Austin was unarmed and offered little resistance although he had fled into woods. Three troopers picked him up after receiving a telephone call from a farmer who had given the man a ride in his pickup truck.

Sought Since Friday
Moran said Austin will appear in North Adams District Court Tuesday on fugitive warrants charging abduction and rape.

Austin had been sought since early Friday when he released Sharon Simmons of Damariscotta, Maine, at his brother's home in Lyndville, Vt.

The girl was abducted from a Damariscotta home where she was baby sitting the night of Oct. 17.

Police said the girl told them Austin had raped her repeatedly during six days of captivity and that he threatened to kill her with a hunting knife.

Marshall Says U.S. Had 2 A-Bombs To Drop On Japs; Tells Of Service Fights

WASHINGTON (AP)—America had only two atomic bombs when the decision was made to drop them on Japan in World War II, according to a posthumously published interview with Gen. George C. Marshall.

The magazine U. S. News & World Report, in a copyrighted article today, said Marshall granted the interview to one of its editors, John P. Sutherland, in 1954 and 1955 with the understanding it would not be published until after his death.

The soldier-diplomat died Oct. 16.

Destructive Power Unknown
Marshall said in the interview that America's military leaders had no idea of the destructive power of the A-bomb until one was exploded in New Mexico on July 16, 1945. And even after that, he said, there was no clear-cut plan on how to use the new weapon.

"I heard all kinds of discussions on how we should use the first one," he said. "Some wanted to drop it on the Sea of Japan. But we didn't know how it would work in water. It might be a dud, or get out of control."

"Others wanted to drop it in a rice paddy to save the lives of the Japanese. But we only had two, and the situation demanded shock action. After using the two bombs against Japan, there would be nothing in reserve."

Army-Navy Squabbles
Marshall said there was constant squabbling between the Navy and Army all during the war and that the joint chiefs of staff had a hard time reaching decisions. He told of a campaign planned for the Aleutian Islands in which Army bombers were going to use naval torpedoes. The Navy refused to supply the torpedoes until he forced them to, Marshall said.

"But their naval instructors who were supposed to teach the Air Corps men how to use them gave such poor instructions—and it was intentional—that the Army men never did learn how to arm those torpedoes properly," he said.

Lifer Is Released After 18 Years To Manage Hotel

THOMASTOWN, Maine (AP)—Paul N. Dwyer Monday re-entered a world he left 22 years ago when he was condemned to life imprisonment for murder.

Dwyer's freedom from the Maine State Prison was made possible by a commutation of his sentence by Gov. Clinton A. Clauson and the Executive Council.

He was 18 years old and considered a drifter in 1937 when he was sentenced for the bludgeoning slaying of Dr. James G. Littlefield, 67. He had not finished high school.

In prison he educated himself in law, accounting and public relations.

Will Manage Hotel
Dwyer, now 40, will work as manager of the 33-room stone hotel in Norway, only a few miles from Paris Hill where he was born and raised and where Dr. Littlefield was killed.

Dwyer is the only living principal in Maine's most notorious crime case.

His freedom follows by nine years the release of another lifer convicted of the same slaying—largely on Dwyer's testimony. Each blamed the other for the crime.

Francis M. Carroll, one-time deputy sheriff, served 12 years for the doctor's slaying. He was released in 1950 on a claim that he was fraudulently convicted. Carroll died in 1956.

Had Bodies In Car
Dwyer was arrested in North Arlington, N.J., 22 years ago this month in a car that contained the bodies of Dr. Littlefield and his wife, Lydia.

After two days of trial at South Paris, Maine, for the doctor's death, Dwyer changed his plea to guilty and accepted a life sentence.

He said later he pleaded guilty in fear of violence to himself and his mother, Jessie Mann, now of Worcester, Mass., by Carroll, who was his jailer.

Faced Incest Charge
Several months later, Carroll was arrested on a charge of incest with his daughter, who was Dwyer's girl friend.

11 Juveniles Are Back In Custody

CHAMBERSBURG, Pa. (AP)—State police report the capture of all 11 juveniles who broke out of the Luzerne County Industrial School near Hazleton.

Three of the youths were taken into custody Monday in the Chambersburg area, the other eight in Warm Springs, Va., according to the Chambersburg state police barracks.

All 11 are being held by juvenile authorities pending arrival of probation officers from the school.

State police said the youths stole at least three cars during their flight which started Saturday night when they left a cottage at the school where they were confined for misbehavior. The school grounds are not closed.

Police and school officials declined to identify the youths.

HUNGRY MAN TAKES LIFE

PITTSBURGH (AP)—A man came to town Monday and phoned Pittsburgh's three daily newspapers a warning that he was going to rob a loan office in downtown Pittsburgh.

Police had barely arrived at the Associate Loan Co. when the office manager received a call from the would-be robber. The manager was told to have some money ready for a holdup.

Officers traced the call to a pay station across the street from the loan office. Nabbed in the booth was a man who said he was a Richard Burgman, 35, of Baltimore. He told police he was unemployed, hungry and wanted sympathy.

Burgman was committed to central station. Later a turnkey found him hanging by his belt from a top bar. He was dead on arrival at a local hospital.

Springfield, Mass., last led the Eastern League in baseball attendance for the last three years.

Anti-American Feeling In Cuba Stirred Again

By ROBERT BERRELLEZ

HAVANA (AP)—Anti-American feeling mounted in Havana Monday as Fidel Castro's supporters beat the drums to marshal a million Cubans for a rally protesting "foreign aggression" against the revolutionary regime.

The Cuban Labor Confederation set the stage for the mammoth show of loyalty ordered by the prime minister to support Cuban demands that the United States prevent anti-Castro Cubans in Florida from flying over Cuba dropping leaflets and arms.

More than a million badges reading "against foreign aggression" were prepared for the demonstrators. A general work shutdown was declared for noon in Havana and three neighboring provinces to bring out a huge crowd before the presidential palace.

"Intruders From Abroad"
Blaring sound trucks and the pro-government press and radio kept up the cry against the intruders from abroad.

The government charges that two mystery planes which dropped anti-Castro leaflets on Havana in daylight last Wednesday came from the United States. As the planes flew over the city, hit-and-run gangs sped through the city in cars, throwing bombs and grenades.

Two Cubans were killed and about 50 injured, and Castro charged that the planes dropped bombs as well as leaflets. But some witnesses said the casualties resulted from the automobile gangs and from the fire of army personnel shooting wildly at the planes.

Slip Through Patrols
Since then individual light planes have slipped through Cuban air force patrols several times to drop anti-Castro leaflets on the capital or its suburbs.

The fiery prime minister has repeatedly denounced the United States for giving refuge to Cuban enemies of his revolutionary regime whom he has branded as war criminals.

A group of 73 professional, civic and religious organizations sent a cable to the U.S. Congress protesting the air activity and urging deportation of Cuban counter-revolutionaries in the United States.

Sophomore quarterback Roman Gabriel of North Carolina State has a five-minute recording which is broadcast each week from Wilmington, N. C., his home town.

Although he hit second in the batting order most of the season, rookie Bob Allison of the Washington Senators drove home 85 runs.

Riding with Russell

REG. U. S. PAT. OFF.
by FREDERICK C. RUSSELL
Member S. A. E.

Speeders should remember the wise man who said "He gets through too late who goes too fast."

The present generation sees man great advances but it has most definitely been cheated out of the excitement of some of those earlier cars which actually thundered as they tore their way over dirt and gravel roads. Today's 300 horsepower giant whippers with little more than a whisper, and occasionally when a muffler blows a hole there is a little of the motorboat sound. It is all most disappointing to old timers who recall those long high hoods and big wheels, and flashing exhausts.

I well recall awaiting the weekly visit of city slickers who used to drive up to a summer hotel in their 1910 chariot. We could hear the car in the distance, and as its driver accelerated in order to climb the short steep hill to the entrance he opened the cut-out to produce a roar that still rings in my ears. Headlights glared. The radiator steamed. Occupants look as if they had been dropped out of space.

Man, what excitement!

Longer Muffler Life

Everything is being done to provide longer life for mufflers, including use of aluminum, asbestos and zinc treatment of the shell. Interior design aims to prevent the accumulation of water from condensation, one plan being to make a muffler's various sections operate at a more uniform temperature. One muffler wipes away the advantage in giving the car more mileage between cold starts. If the car is run only a few blocks and then parked, water still collect inside the exhaust system and remain there to accelerate corrosion. This water is always acidified by exhaust gases.

Some of the oil dipsticks for modern engines are odd in shape. This is because the oil "sump" is so far down and often not in a direct line with the point of entry for the measuring stick. Sometimes owners will be tempted to try turning the stick around only to discover that it then fails to register the oil level correctly or bits some moving part of the engine. Dipsticks for automatic transmissions are especially weird in design. Fortunately they usually can't be turned around. Note especially if the ring at the top of the stick is loose.

Mechanic Joe Speaking:

"I am frequently asked why it is that while a leaky valve will so often cause missing when the engine idles it will not seem to be giving any special trouble when the car is on the road. The impression is that stickage is stickage and should show up during the entire speed range.

"If the valve is leaking merely because of stickage the fact is that added pressure on its head as the engine speeds up and is put to work serves to force it shut. However, if the valve is burned no added pressure will stop it from leaking, but as engine speed increases the other cylinders tend more and more to cover up the weak sister."

What's Your Trouble?

Q. It was necessary to change the master cylinder for the brakes because the primary cup failed to seat tightly. What caused this? N. K.

A. Some dirt and sludge in the system could have caused this result. I would make certain that the entire system has been bled out, flushed and refilled with heavy duty brake fluid.

Q. I have tried rocking the ends of my car up and down to test the efficiency of its shock absorbers. I notice that the rear of the car doesn't go down softly. Does this suggest trouble with the rear springs? W. L. P.

A. I would be more inclined to suspect a binding rear shock absorber.

Q. Have had the right front wheel's brake cylinder replaced, and now I notice that in rainy weather the car tends to skid when being stopped. R. F.

A. This probably is due to the new lining on the right front brake not being of the same friction quality as the lining on the opposite wheel.

Q. I have been noticing that the car shows poor performance in all ranges of the automatic transmission except Direct Drive. Full details as to the make and year of the car are at the bottom of the letter. J. S. N.

A. On this transmission this indicates that the Direct Drive clutch is slipping.

Q. From the way the engine acts I am inclined to believe that the gas mixture always is too lean. Have had the carburetor cleaned out and the idling mixture adjusted. It still acts the same. V. McB.

A. This sort of general leanness always suggests that there is trouble with the fuel supply. Check especially for an air leak in the fuel line.

Q. By checking with a screwdriver in the old-fashioned way I find that the fourth cylinder on the left bank of the engine isn't firing. I have replaced the spark plug and find that high tension current is reaching the plug. R. J. L.

A. The plug is actually firing and mixture may be burning in that cylinder, but for all practical purposes it isn't on the job. You will find that this is due to that particular cylinder. You do not notice this when the engine is above idle speed because the other seven cylinders carry the load easily. It is seriously affecting gas mileage, however.

Q. Lately the engine of my car is hard to re-start after driving a short distance. This isn't the sort of thing that develops after an engine has been well heated up and then switched off. Cranking with the throttle wide open doesn't seem to help the current situation. G. S.

A. This indicates a choke condition. Try reducing richness of the choke.

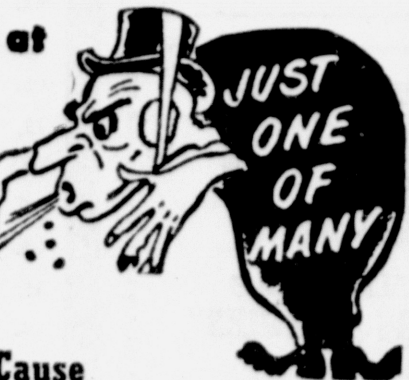

Mr. Russell will answer questions regarding the safe care and operation of your car. Just address him care of The Gettysburg Times and enclose stamped, self-addressed envelope for a personal reply. Please confine inquiries to one subject and limit letter to 100 words or less.

Stock Market Sways With Punches Of Steel Strike

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market has been having a spell of jitters.

It has alternated chills and fevers as the chances of the steel strike coming to an end grew cold or hot.

It has tried to guess what a steadily rising cost of living—and boosts in wages that are tied to it in escalator clauses—may foretell.

Debate On

Investors have debated the pros and cons of tight money and the chances of more inflation.

They have watched talks about summit meetings alternately fan or bank the flame of hope in a cold war thaw.

Those with long memories in Wall Street recall that it was just 30 years ago this week that the bottom fell out of the market. They can list the similarities in today's market and that of 1929. And they can stress all the differences and all the laws since enacted to keep "Black Tuesday," Oct. 29, 1929, from reoccurring.

Two Worries

Two things about the steel strike have worried the market. The first was the obvious fear about damage it might do to the general economy as shutdowns spread through industries running out of supplies.

The second was the threat that the strike was developing into a major showdown between management and labor concerning principles toward which many managements and many unions took the same unbending stances as did the steel companies and steelworkers.

The cost of living has continued to rise with only breathers now and then. Prices held firm during the recession—to the surprise of many. And wage scales continued to rise in the face of much unemployment—also to the surprise of many.

Money Tight

Tightening up of money and credit sends interest rates up and makes mortgage money harder to get but it has little to show for itself yet as a regulator of the cost of living.

But these are externals. The market has its internal quakes as well. The long memory boys have been shaking their heads because prices have been bid so high as to be out of sight of earning prospects for several years in some cases. They note that top stocks yield less at these prices than do top bonds at their depressed prices.

The cautious haven't been too happy about the rush of the public to get into the market—particularly to buy the low priced shares, and often stocks that the buyers know little or nothing about.

General Optimism

These are the things that the market has been jittery about—even though most people feel that business will take to the upgrade smartly when the steel furnaces are hot again, and almost everybody believes that the long range outlook of the economy is good.

But last week wasn't a happy one. The Associated Press stock price index closed the previous week at 224.8. After a week of sinking spell and sharp rallies it closed Friday at 221.3.

Perhaps the market will rest easier once the Oct. 29 anniversary is past.

MILLIONS IN FUNNY MONEY IN S. S. VAULT

By FRANK CORMIER

WASHINGTON (AP) — Locked behind stout steel doors in a small room at the U.S. Treasury is five million dollars in paper. This is the "funny money room" of the counterfeit section of the Secret Service.

It probably is the only place in the country where you can say something is as phony as a $3 bill and be literally correct.

In a locked file in this room are samples of every counterfeit currency ever uncovered by Secret Service, which safeguards the integrity of the nation's money.

The samples include a number of $3 bills — counterfeiters of currency issued by state banks before the Civil War.

In vaults lining one wall are millions of dollars of bogus bills seized by the Secret Service in recent years.

The counterfeit section vaults also hold bogus or altered coins. Few people bother to counterfeit small change but many try to convert pennies into dimes. The object is to make the pennies usable in vending machines or pay telephones.

Whenever a coin is altered, it ceases to be money. It is then worth only the value of the metal it contains.

DEATHS

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Edward E. Campbell, 86, who established three newspapers in more than a half century as an editor and publisher in Missouri and Illinois, died Saturday.

NEW YORK (AP) — William Golden, 48, creative director of sales promotion and advertising for the Columbia Broadcasting System, died Friday of a heart attack at his home in Stony Point, N.Y. He is credited with introducing the CBS television trademark, the "eye."

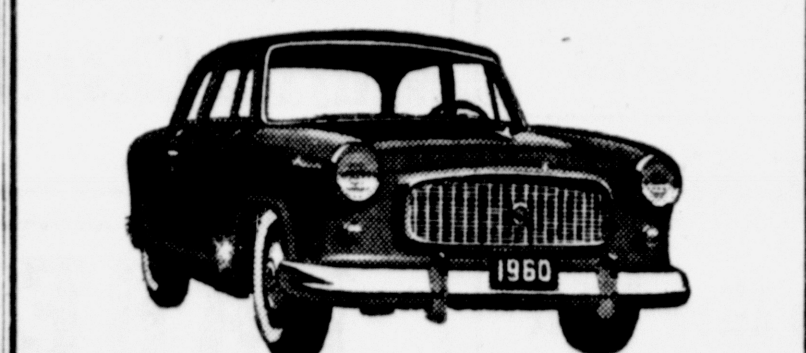

Moorhead, who began his career with the Kansas City Journal, also worked for the New York Journal and the New York Herald Tribune.

Telegraph offices in the little Asian nation of Cambodia handled 40,600 telegrams in 1958.

Taft-Hartley Act, Effective In 16 Previous Cases, Likely To Get Supreme Court Test

By JAMES MARLOW

Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — This is an ABC on the court struggle between the government and the Steelworkers' Union over the question of stopping their strike for 80 days.

Although the government in 16 previous cases has been able to stop strikes by using the 1947 Taft-Hartley Act, the right of the government to do so has never gone to the Supreme Court for a test. This one may.

The Taft-Hartley Act says whenever a president thinks a strike will "imperil national health and safety," he can try to stop or prevent it for 80 days through a federal court injunction.

Began July 15

The present steel strike, which began July 15, directly involves 500,000 steelworkers and mills which turn out 85 per cent of the nation's steel.

In time, as steel supplies dwindled, other workers and industries dependent on steel in one way or another have been affected. Now an additional 280,000 men are idle. The longer the strike, the worse the effect.

Kaiser Steel Co. cracked the solid front of the 104-day strike Sunday night when it said it would sign a separate agreement with the union. Kaiser, the nation's 12th largest producer, employs 10,615 workers and produces about 2 per cent of the nation's steel. The other 11 companies that had been represented by an industry negotiating team said their position will not be changed by Kaiser's action.

NEW YORK (AP) — Lillian S. Timken, 78, widow of one of the founders of the Timken Roller Bearing Co., was found dead Saturday in her 34-room Fifth avenue apartment, surrounded by litter and dusty works of art. She had lived as a recluse since the death of her husband, William R., in 1949. She was born in Chicago.

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP) — George Parmly Day, 83, founder of the Yale University Press and treasurer of the university from 1910 to 1942, died Saturday. His father, Clarence S. Day, the father of "Life With Father," was for many years governor of the New York Stock Exchange.

new members of the society will be conducted on Sunday, November 8, after the evening devotions at church.

section of Taft-Hartley which authorizes the government to seek an injunction from a federal court is unconstitutional. Why?

Under the Constitution, he said in effect, federal judges are supposed to judge the issues in a controversy between two parties, deciding who's right and who's wrong or whether one side or the other has done something illegal.

Blameless

The union committed no wrong in striking he went on. It has a right to strike. So, to issue an injunction would make a federal court an administrative, instead of a judicial, agent of the government.

Administrative for this reason: an injunction would not be issued to prevent a wrong or stop a crime but only to give the government time to try to get both sides in he strike to reach a settlement.

Goldberg contended this is contrary to the job of federal courts and therefore unconstitutional.

Gives Answers

The government, through George C. Doub, assistant attorney general in charge of the civil division, basically answered Goldberg's two main arguments this way:

1. The President surely is in a position to know what he is talking about when he says the strike has become a peril to national health and safety.

2. Taft-Hartley, in a case like this, was intended to protect the nation from damage and surely, he argued, the government has the right to enlist the help of the court in protecting the nation. He denied granting an injunction would be an administrative act.

Lack Of Evidence

He argued it is not enough to show the strike is causing economic damage to the country—he admits it is causing some—so long as the national health and safety, as specified in the Taft-Hartley law, are not hurt.

2. Goldberg argued that the

MET OPENS 75TH WITH NEW STAR

By HENRIETTA LEITH
NEW YORK (AP) — The 75th season of the Metropolitan Opera is under way after an opening night at which the Met offered up an exciting new star and a new production of an old, old favorite.

As usual the season's opening at the old opera house offered another show—the audience—with its own stars and all the glamor and glitter any one could want. The opera was "Il Trovatore," and most real opera lovers went to hear and see Italy's famed Giulietta Simionato make her Metropolitan debut as the gypsy Azucena. They were not disappointed.

Greer Garson There
Neither were the opera patrons who went mainly to see the celebrated opening night audience.

They saw Greer Garson, in shimmering white, wrapped in white mink, her pink-blond hair piled regally high in what seems to be the coiffure this season.

They saw Rosalind Russell, in a low-cut black gown, wrapped in yards of chinchilla, with a hat that was a tall cylinder of black tulle and stayed upright by sheer leger-demain.

Other Notables
If that weren't enough, they could gawk at boyish pianist Van Cliburn, escorting a pretty opera singer, Rosalind Elias, or onetime baseball star Hank Greenberg and Bob Feller, or slim, blonde Hope Hampton, who charmed their grandfathers on the stage.

It was a fashion parade—heavy brocades and glittering satins, electric greens, bold yellows and reds against stark white, gleaming gold and silver: swaths of mink, ermine or chinchilla, especially chinchilla; diamonds, rubies and emeralds in the traditional necklaces and tiaras or tucked into chignons at every imaginable angle.

The Met took in an estimated $86,000 for the opening night of a season that will be the longest in its history, running for 25 weeks.

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Some 3,500 employees of 100 Great Atlantic & Pacific Tea Co. stores in the tri-state area have a new two-year wage contract.

The agreement was reached Monday night between the A. & P. and Local 590 of the Amalgamated Food Store Employees Union.

Senator Opposes Annual Sessions

FORD CITY, Pa. (AP) — State Sen. Albert R. Pechan says he is "definitely opposed to proposed annual sessions of the Pennsylvania Legislature for many, many reasons."

Pechan, Senate Majority Whip and a member of the powerful rules committee, said Monday annual sessions will result in the Legislature being a full time job for legislators.

"If it's going to be full time, the salaries will certainly have to be raised, making the cost of government much too high."

Blames Apathy For Joblessness

ALTOONA, Pa. (AP) — Public and congressional apathy toward the problem of spot unemployment is a chief hurdle in obtaining a needed employment program, says Atty. William D. Patton of Johnstown.

Patton appealed for the elimination of partisan politics in the general treatment of aid for depressed areas. Patton, counsel for the Senate Constitutional Rights Committee, appeared Monday before a Senate subcommittee on unemployment.

Johnny Podres made one double for the Los Angeles Dodgers during the National League season. In the World Series he also hit a two bagger to help win the final game.

"To the bank, of course. Why? Simply because I can arrange a bank personal loan easily and at less cost than at any other place I know! I tell all my friends, if they need a loan, and can pay it off a little each payday, be sure to get a low-cost bank loan."
